Sandy Hook Beach – July 17

The seven-mile stretch of spectacular ocean and bay beaches are excellent for surf casting, swimming, and relaxing on the sand.

Action-Packed Entertainment Centers and Theme Parks

Six Flags Great Adventure – July 10 and July 31

Please bring your season pass if you have one. Lockers are available for an additional cost.

Lunch is provided on this trip. Each camper will receive a voucher that is good at many locations for lunch. No outside coolers or food are permitted in the park.

Bucks County Tubing – July 16

“Relax on the scenic Delaware River in the beautiful river country for approximately 3 to 4 hours, just north of where George Washington historically crossed on December 25, 1776.”

Lunch is included on this trip

Breakwater Beach – July 18

Campers will enjoy the water at the outdoor waterpark attractions. Campers that love adventure, will have a wild, but very safe ride. THE HARBOR - The Wave Pool at Breakwater Beach is approximately 5860 square feet and located at the far eastern end of the Waterpark, underneath the mountain golf course. SALEM'S SCREAM... OH MY COD - Test your senses with the ALL NEW Aqua drop free fall! A 50 foot speed slide where the floor drops out from under you at the starting platform!!! REVERE'S WILD RIDE - Take the twists and turns of a serpentine body slide as you wind your way above the lazy river! PATRIOT'S PLUNGE - This 6 lane racing slide lets you compete against others as you plummet on a mat to the finish line. Grab a mat and race your friends. There are so many attractions for everyone.

Hurricane Harbor – July 23

Please bring your season pass if you have one. Lockers are available for an additional cost.

Lunch is provided on this trip. Each camper will receive a voucher that is good at many locations for lunch. No outside coolers or food are permitted in the park.

Dorney Park & Wild Water Kingdom – July 25

This theme park has the best of both worlds. It is like Six Flags and Hurricane Harbor all in one, so dress appropriately for both types of parks. Lockers are available for an additional cost.

Lunch is NOT provided on this trip. No outside coolers or food are permitted with the exception of “factory sealed bottles of water”. It is recommended to pack food/drinks for the bus ride and the return drive. Coolers can be kept on the bus.

Treehouse World - August 6

Games and activities are going on throughout every day at Treehouse World. The events of the day are not always the same, but the lists below give you some idea of the kinds of things to do here that we offer on a rotating basis. If you are visiting on a themed event day, then check the calendar to see what is planned, such as walking the plank on talk like a pirate day.

Games:

Tomahawk Axe Throwing, Bigfoot Trolley Race, Scavenger Hunt, Stump of War

Outside Extras:

Walking on Nature paths, Labyrinth (small maze), Feeding our pet bunnies and free range chickens & guinea hens
Woot! Found wild fruit! Red Raspberries (mid July), Apples (August/September), Picnic tables scattered along the trails for picnics and More Activities in the Pirate's Cove. Lunch is NOT included.

Indoor Fun & Sight Seeing

Picture Show – July 11

Featuring Spiderman, Campers will sit back relax and enjoy the show in luxury seating. Snack is included.

Bowlero – July 19

Campers will enjoy lanes that are some of the coolest and most stunning in the game, featuring black lights, soft lounge seats, and huge HD video walls that play everything from live sports and music videos to classic family films. Play your favorites arcade games, titles like Jurassic Park Arcade, Mario Kart, World's Largest Pac-Man, classic pinball machines, and many more. Lunch is included.

Urban AIR – July 22

Campers will enjoy an indoor trampoline park, foam pits, and more! Lunch is included.

Dave & Busters – July 29

COME READY TO PLAY & LET THE GAMES BEGIN! No matter who's ready for fun—there's something for everyone. Whether it's classics like Pop-A-Shot, Pac-Man, and Skee-Ball, or the newest games in our Million Dollar Midway, everyone in your group will have a blast! Lunch included.

Philadelphia Zoo – August 1

The region's leading family destination and one of the area's foremost conservation organizations, Philadelphia Zoo is home to nearly 1,300 animals, many rare and endangered. Leveraging its platform as America's first zoo, Philadelphia Zoo is working double-time to educate more than 1.2 million annual visitors about animal and environmental conservation via a first-in-the-world animal travel and exploration trail system, called Zoo360, that offers animals more room to roam, and KidZooU -- a new KidZooU children's zoo and education center that serves as a model for children's zoos nationwide.

Medieval Times Dinner and Tournament – August 7

“There's a reason Medieval Times is the No. 1 dinner attraction in North America: Our unique combination of a medieval banquet and thrilling competition between Knights captures the imaginations of all ages.”

Lunch is included on this trip – be prepared to eat with your fingers as they did during medieval times!

Garden State Rocks – July 30

Garden State Rocks is the Northeast's newest, and perhaps most innovative, climbing gym.

Our totally air conditioned facility features state-of-the-art top rope and lead walls (between 25 and 30 feet tall), a spectacular bouldering island and a unique and expansive cave.

The more than 6,000 sq. ft. of climbing surface includes vertical and overhung terrain with bulges, roofs, aretes, and slabs with the most realistic crack anywhere. The creative, rock-like climbing structures, built by the Eldorado Wall Company are surrounded by a continuous safety pad. Lunch is NOT included.

Rolling Video Games – August 9

Our last day at camp is a half day, so Rolling Video Games will be here to challenge your friends or the staff to games on Wii, Playstation and X-Box. "What is a mobile video game theater? FOUR widescreen high-def TVs cover the walls in front of custom stadium seats with built-in vibration motors synched to the on-screen action with speakers in front and back. Everything is linked, so 16 players can play the same game — or against each other!" Lunch is included.
