

Presents

History through Music Festival A Black History Month Celebration

From African Drums, blues, jazz and Hip-Hop; from spirituals to R&B, music is replete with the influence of the African-American community. Listen to the Music that has influenced our culture in a celebration of Black History Month.

Narrator Thelma Armstrong will take the audience on a journey through a music timeline. Featured performances highlight the musical talents of Tyrone Laws (African Drums), Community Refuge Church (Gospel), Courteney Lynn Wilds, Soprano (Opera & Classical), HighLite Vibes Steel Drums (Reggae, Soca & Calypso) and a performance by CROWN Jules (R&B) featuring Jules Drucker and Lenny Harold.

Saturday,
February 3, 2018
1:00 PM

Free of Charge

Monmouth County Library Headquarters
Manalapan, NJ 07726

Produced by :Court Street School Education Community Center