

Back safe, together.

As we reunite with family and friends and rejoin our communities, activities and social gatherings after being isolated, the long-awaited opportunities present many hesitations, anxieties to overcome and adjustments to make. We are here to assist in transitioning back to our post-pandemic lives offering emotional support, ideas, solutions and to connect with other Seniors sharing similar thoughts. Our groups offer a place to engage with others, make new friends and learn new things!

RWJBarnabasHealth Institute for Prevention and Recovery's Hope and Healing Program offers meetings just for Seniors. We offer four FREE meetings a week with no registration necessary. Join us for one or all days!
