Monmouth County Clerk Hanlon Invites Businesses to Support Our Veterans in the "Honoring Our Heroes" Discount Program

FREEHOLD, New Jersey – Monmouth County Clerk Christine Giordano Hanlon is inviting Monmouth County business owners to join more than 250 participants in the "Honoring Our Heroes" Discount Program for Veterans and Gold Star Families.

"Veterans are our heroes. Our veterans and Gold Star families deserve to be honored every day. The Monmouth County Clerk's 'Honoring Our Heroes' Discount Program is a great way to recognize and thank them year-round for their service and sacrifice," said Clerk Hanlon, who created a public service announcement to spread the message among the business community in Monmouth County.

Businesses may enroll in the program at no cost and receive a listing in both online and printed directories. They are also recognized with a post on the Monmouth County Clerk's Office's social media platforms announcing their participation and receive a free window cling donated by members of the Asbury Park VFW Harold Daley Post 1333 to promote program participation.

To participate, business owners or authorized managers simply complete and sign a single-page enrollment form and submit it either via email to CountyClerk@co.monmouth.nj.us or deliver it by mail or in person to the Monmouth County Clerk's Office, 33 Mechanic Street, Freehold, New Jersey 07728. Questions may be directed to the email above or by calling 732.431.7324.

The online discount directory is available at MonmouthCountyVeterans.com, which also contains details about other services offered by the Monmouth County Clerk's Office's to veterans and Gold Star Family members such as free identification cards and no-cost peddlers' license applications.
